Hrmph. Oh hey, I'm Pat Tronizer.

I'm SO glad to have all these first-rate talks here.

We issued a Call for Talks, but only one person responded... We put him in track 1.

But Jack came up with an ingenious way to borrow additional talks for FrostFest! You can hardly tell where we got these great speakers!

Anyway, I cannot believe an actual human connected to the Tower network. It's supposed to be the domain of us trolls and of course Jack Frost himself.

Mr. Frost has a strict policy: all devices must be RFC3514 compliant. It fits in with our nefarious plans.

Some human had the nerve to use our complaint website to submit a complaint!

That website is for trolls to complain about guests, NOT the other way around.

Humans have some nerve.
